1. Community participation in City budget process impacted City Council

Are pools, rinks and recreation centres important to you and your family?

The planned cuts to rinks, pools and recreation centres survived the budget cuts with some reductions in service-\(read more\). Our voices were heard but as one Toronto resident said "this is the beginning, not the end to negotiations". Toronto needs a community based solution to provide adequate recreation and sport opportunities at reasonable prices. Residents should have the opportunity to swim in community pools, skate on municipal rinks and play in community recreation centres. Join us on Facebook and Twitter to make your voice heard!

2. Ontario Trillium Foundation Informational Session

ATTENTION: GRANT APPLICANTS

4. TSC announces new Sport Recognition Award Program!

The TSC is introducing a new Sport Recognition Program. According to TSC Director Bob Stellick, "The new Sport Recognition Program is to recognize and celebrate the contributions that Volunteers, Business and Amateur Sport Journalists make to the Toronto sport community". Do you know of a deserving individual or company? If so, please send your nomination by February 15 to info@torontosportscouncil.ca explaining how that individual or corporation makes a contribution to amateur sport in Toronto. Our first group of recipients will be announced at our March 3 Toronto Sports Council Summit.
